We Reap what we Sow.

For pleasure or pain, for west of mr woe --The the law of our being-we reap as we sow; We may try to evade them, may do what we will; But our acts, like our shadows, will follow us still.

The world is a wonderful chemist, he sure, And detects in a moment the base or the pure ; We may house of our claims to senios or birth : But the world takes a man for just what he is worth.

We start in the race for fortune or fame. And then, when we fall, the world hears the blame; But nine times out of ten, 'tis plain to be seen; There's a " screw somewhere loose" in the human machin Are you wearled and worn in this hard, earthly strife!

Do you yearn for affection to sweeten your life? Remember this great truth has often been proved, We must make ourselves lovable, would we be loved. Though life may appear as a desolate track, Yet the bread that we cast on the water comes back This law was enact d by Heaven above,

That like attracts like, and love begets love. We are proud of our mansions of mortar and stone, In our gardeon are flowers from every zone; But the beautiful graces which blossom within Grow striveted and die in the Upus of Sin. We make ourselves heroes and martyrs for gold,

Till health becomes brosen, and youth becomes old. Ah! did we the same for a beautiful love, Our lives might be music for angels above. We reap what we sow-oh, wonderful truth !-

A truth hard to learn in the days of our youth ! But it shines out at fast, as the "hand on the wall," For the world has its "debit" and "credit" for all.

VARIETY.

The Grecian ladies counted their age from their marriage, not from their birth. Miss Amy R-, of Iowa, weighs 352 pounds No man will marry her for tear of big Amy.

Engaging Photographer-" Just look a little pleasant, Miss! Think of 'im!" A poor man is to be avoided-he lacks principle and never has any interest in anything. No man can go to heaven when he dies who has not sent his heart thither while he lived. Japanese children are to be compelled to attend school between the ages of six and thirteen. MATRIMONY, -Hudibras calls matrimony a perverse fever, beginning with heat and ending with

"Apothecarelessness" is a new word, which the present generation has found it necessary to invent for the benefit of posterity.

The blossom cannot tell what becomes of its odor, and no man can tell what becomes of his influence and example, that roll away from him and go beyond his ken on their mission. HE WAS RIGHT .- Dr. Mott used to say that roast beef, serenity of mind, cold water baths, and an amiable and pretty wife, would make almost any man healthy, wealthy, and wise. When N. P. Willis was asked to make a speech he replied, "I am by profession a writer, and you can not expect a pump to give water from the handle as well as from the mouth." A Frenchwoman once said that she never loved anything. "You loved your children?" suggested a friend. "When they were little," she replied. "And you love diamonds?" "When they are large.'

A Connecticut sexton prevents the congregation from shifting about and changing seats by dexteriously applying a gob of pitch to their persons as they entered the sanctuary. He says

A reporter was disturbed one night by a noise, which proved to be occasioned by a man fallen at his door in a fit, when he cried to his better-half, " Mary, Mary, bring my note-book and a candle directly; here's a paragraph come to the door.'

No Decision .- At a young ladies' debating elub the following question was lately discussed: "What gives a girl the most pleasure—to hear RETAIL DEALERS IN WHOLESALE AND herself praised, or to hear another girl run down?" No decision was arrived at.

"Sal," cried a girl, looking down from the upper story of a grocery, addressing another girl, who was trying to enter the front door, "we've all been to camp-meeting, and we have been converted; so when you want milk on Sunday, you'll have to come round to the back door.'

One argument for letting the Germans have their Sunday and lager together, used in the Chicago Board of Aldermen, was that the beer would not keep over Sunday, while whisky would. The latter depends upon the amount and the number of Irishmen surrounding it. POETRY .- Barber : " No offence, sir, I hope, but has it ever struck you as a bald 'ed is like the better world?" Customer (curtly): "No! Barber: "Well, sir, (I thought of it myself), it's a bright and shiny place, you see, sir, where there's no parting!" (Customer smiles pain-

Massachusetts continues to make her criminals pay for their living. The expenditures of the State Prison at Charleston during the past year have amounted to $134,560.21, while the receipts have been $141,145.44, which gives a profit of $14,635.23. This is the result of good manage-

At an evening party a very elderly lady was dancing with a young partner. A stranger approached Jerrold, who was looking on, and said, Pray, sir, can you tell me who is the young gentleman dancing with that elderly lady? One of the humane society, I should think,' replied Jerrold. In strict observance of the will of Stephen Girard, no clergyman known to be such, is allowed to visit the college of his endowment. A gentleman of a clerical cut as to appearance once presented his pass to the janitor. The latter, taking him in from head to foot with one glance, said: "I cannot admit you, sir; you are a clergyman." "The devil I am," said the visitor.

" You can pass," was the quiet reply. The late autocrat of the principality of Schwarzburg-Sonderhausen, bit upon quite an original idea of making money. He established a large brewery and distillery, and forbid his subjects, under heavy penalties, to consume any other ale or spirits than those issued from the princely concern. In this way he is said to have nequired some considerable capital, which he invested in large estates in Bohemia and the Grand Duchy of Mecklenberg.

SAM RICE'S EXPLANATION .- Sam Rice, of Alabama, is well known as a ready and witty man, though somewhat erratic. Here is the last good story told upon him, and it is very characteristic: About the commencement of the war he made a speech in North Alabama in which he said that Southern soldiers could whip the Vankous 1527 Materials. Fort Street. the Southern soldiers could whip the Yankees with pop-guns. Since the war he chanced to make another speech at the same place. A big make another speech at the same place. A big double-jointed fellow was present, who heard and remembered the former speech, and being in no very amiable frame of mind, concluded to go for S. P. Hing was his elegant and provided to go for No. 95 King Street, Honolulu.

19 Sam. Rolling up his sleeves and popping his fist in the palm of his hands he propounded the fear-

"Sam Rice, didn't you make a speech here in "And didn't you say that we could whip the Yankees with pop-guns?" "Certainly I did, but dam 'em they wouldn't fight us that way! "

THE CLIMATE OF THESE ISLANDS is noted the world over for general salubrity, while certain particular localities in the group are more especially favorably known. The district of Kona, on the ice side of Hawaii, has long been famed as a place of resort for those afflicted with affections of the lungs. Not a few cases have been known of persons who had been given over as sure to die, by their physicians in California, after a few months residence in the pure, mild air of Kona, recovering robust health and taking a new lease of life.

The undersigned, at his commodious house at Kaawaloa. South Kens, is prepared to furnish good accommodations to boarders at the low rate of $5 per week; including good saddle horses when desired, and good fresh water baths, on the premises, also within a short distance of fine sea bathing. The Business.

GLE, Polishing and Fluting Machines, and all of the modern improvements—with lease of premises for three years, from the 1st of April next—all for $2,500. Possession given at once. The Laundry work for the last three years has amounted to $12,431,50; costing $3,425,25 at the rate of 75 cents per day for native women, and $1.00 per day for native men. For the last two years I have spent the most of my time in California, and have there established my Medical Preparations, which demands my undivided attention, and that is why I offer the mands my undivided attention, and that is why I offer the Laundry for sale. The Laundry work placed in the hands of one or two interested parties can be increased one-half, without any additional cost of labor, or at least $6,000 per year. The work for last month at the same rate per year, amounted to $7,776. Should an additional line of steamers be put on, they alone would add $1,500 or $2,000 to the $6,000, taken as a medium standard. Any one desiring the busines, will please call at the Laundry, where full particulars will be given.
